

LANL Foundation grantmaking

LANLF grantmaking philosophy

PURPOSE of LANL Foundation Grantmaking:

- Invest in individual, organizational and institutional capacity - to facilitate an opportunity for broader collective learning and changemaking in the ecosystem of education across Northern New Mexico and the state of New Mexico.

LANL Foundation Grantmaking is premised on the belief that through each grant award,

we can

- Increase connections to- and cultivate relationships with- our communities of place, practice and service which will allow us to

- Learn from and with the experiential and cultural wisdom embedded in both the evidence-based and community-based practices of our partners

which will result in

- Catalyzed shared learning to grow the vitality of our communities

Community Outreach Grants

16 Grants, $80,000 to award

$5,000 / 2 year term

- Eligible Entities:

- 501(c)3's / Public Charities
- Governmental & Quasi-governmental Institutions, including tax exempt sovereign nations (Pueblos, Tribes, Nations) and municipalities and counties
- Educational Institutions, including higher education institutions, public school districts, public schools, local and state-controlled charter schools, and BIE- and tribally-controlled schools

- Ineligible Entities: Religious and social organizations

2024 Timeline

theory of change

theory of change

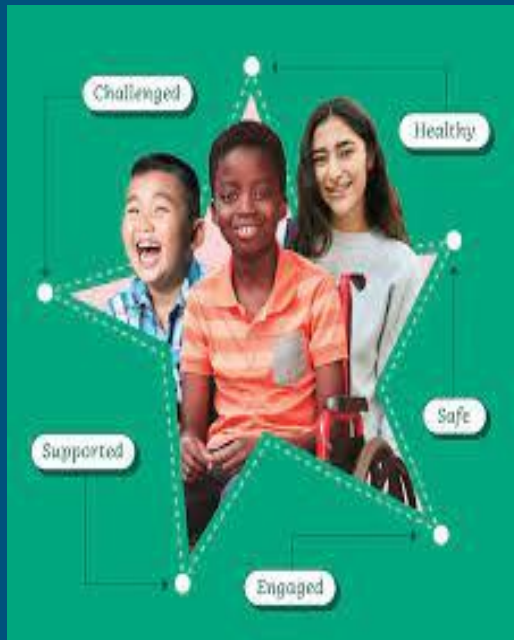

Caring and capable adults cultivate equitable, relevant, and vibrant learning opportunities that nurture whole child development and strong pathways to college, careers, and community involvement, which lead to thriving New Mexico communities.

<https://lanlfoundation.org/our-theory-of-change/>

Our Theory of Change.

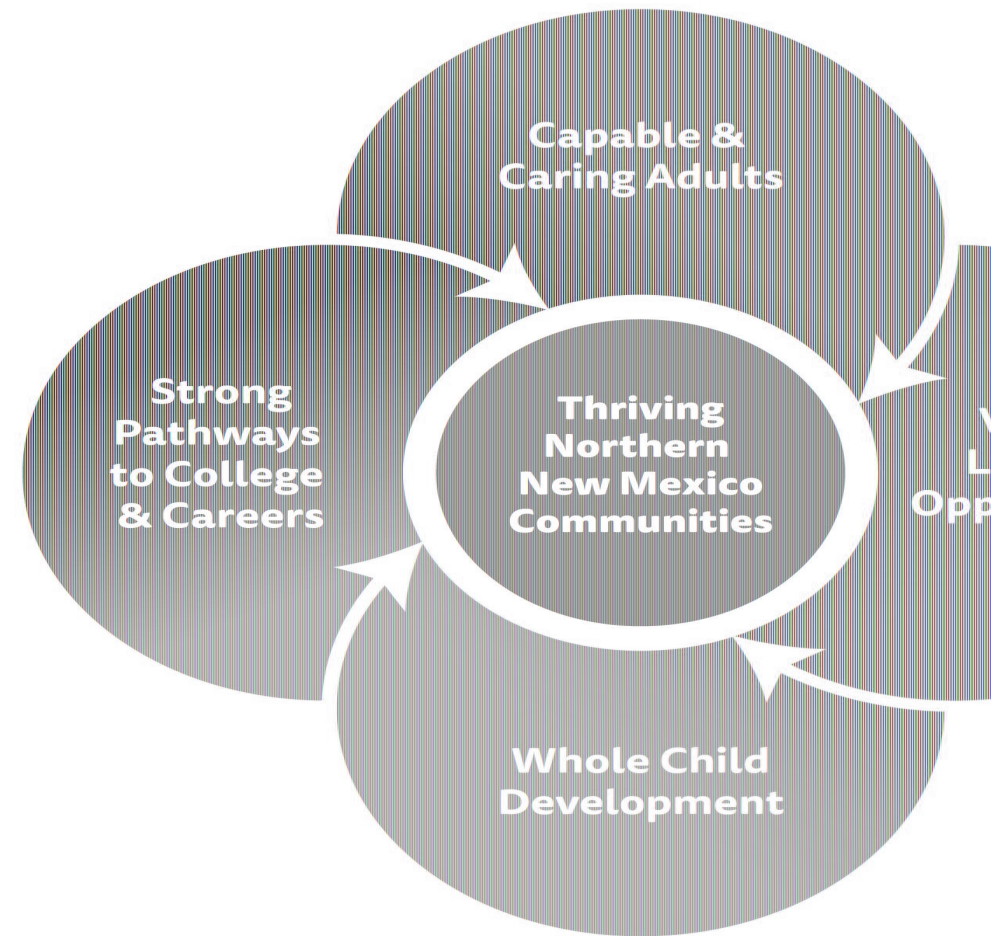

Caring and capable adults cultivate equitable, relevant, and vibrant learning opportunities that nurture whole child development and engagement in strong pathways to college, careers, and community involvement, which lead to thriving New Mexico communities.

How we work our TOC.

The LANL Foundation envisions and works toward creating an education ecosystem that ensures all babies, children, youth, and adults can thrive. We believe that supported families, students, educators, education leaders, community members, and policy makers at all levels will help them create equitable opportunities and an ecosystem that is responsive to local needs, interests, and desires, including those of Tribal and rural communities.

Capable & Caring Adults

Inquiry Based

Project Based

Place Based

Problem Based

Learner Centered

Personalized

Vibrant Learning Opportunities

Family Based

Community Based

Experiential

Culturally and Linguistically
Sustaining

Whole Child Development

Strong Pathways to Careers & Community

Aligned with State and National Policy

How do these ideas align with the work?

Questions?
Connections?

thank you

Sylvan Argo
Grants Manager

grants@lanlfoundation.org